

Quiet Time with Father Joseph In the Chapel

Saturday, December 2, 2017

9am – NOON

LOOKING INTO THE INCARNATE FACE OF JESUS

All are welcome to attend.

Jesus by Rembrandt

As everyone knows, the word “Christmas” is actually two words – Christ Mass. Over the centuries, Dec. 25 became Christmas but the proper name for Dec. 25 is the Feast of the Incarnation. The word “incarnation” means that God became human in Jesus – the Incarnate Word.

On Saturday, Dec. 2 there will be a quiet morning in the Chapel led by the Rector to meditate on the various aspects of the humanity of Jesus. Using images through the centuries, we will spend time meditating on specific attributes of Jesus as a human being as shown by artists. There is no prior reading required. You are asked to please show up a little early so you can settle in before worship and meditating on scripture and as not to interrupt others in their times of silent prayer and meditation.

The next Quiet day will be on Saturday, February 10. The book we will use is a wonderful spiritual aid called The Practice of the Presence of God by Brother Lawrence. Amazon says of this wonderful book: For nearly 300 years this unparalleled classic has given both blessing and instruction to those who can be content with nothing less than knowing God in all His majesty and feeling His loving presence throughout each simple day.
