LENTEN SPECIAL EDITION

Lent Begins with Ash Wednesday – March 6

Dear People of God: The first Christians observed with great devotion the days of our Lord's passion and resurrection, and it became the custom of the Church to prepare for them by a season of penitence and fasting.

This season of Lent provided a time in which converts to the faith were prepared for Holy Baptism. It was also a time when those who, because of notorious sins, had been separated from the body of the faithful were reconciled by penitence and forgiveness, and restored to the fellowship of the Church. Thereby, the whole congregation was put in mind of the message of pardon and absolution set forth in the Gospel of our Savior, and of the need which all Christians continually have to renew their repentance and faith.

I invite you, therefore, in the name of the Church, to the observance of a holy Lent, by self-examination and repentance; by prayer, fasting, and self-denial; and by reading and meditating on God's holy Word.

Book of Common Prayer Ash Wednesday Service p. 264

Holy Eucharist and Imposition of Ashes          noon & 7 pm

Come join us for this time-honored tradition of beginning the season of Lent with a litany of prayers, imposition of ashes, a brief homily, and Eucharist.

*And of course, all are invited to come prepare for Lent with our Annual Shrove Tuesday Pancake Dinner /Tuesday March 5
Beginning at 5 pm -*

How Might We Have an Intentional Lent from your Interim

As Christians – followers of Jesus’ Way of Love – we are sealed by the power of the Holy Spirit and marked as Christ’s own forever. Nothing can keep us from the love of God. That is one of our most fundamental and foundational Christian beliefs. And yet, many of us have a difficult time living into that truth and offering it to others because we struggle to claim that truth for ourselves.

There are so many life-distractions that get in our way of hearing and knowing that we each are God’s Beloved with any great certainty. How often do we measure our worthiness to be loved based on our looks, jobs, incomes, or what others think of us? How often does conflict arise out of a need to find power-over others to make ourselves feel better? At the end of the day, all of these measures of self-worth can leave us feeling “less than” or feeling as though we haven’t done enough. And then God’s life-giving command to love others as we love ourselves bears sour fruit.

I have to admit that when I allow myself to get overly busy and distracted, I experience a vacuum in connecting with God’s presence and love. And yet, this love is the one thing that grounds me in the knowledge that who I am is a beloved child of God and what I do is enough for God. I have to wonder how many of you struggle with the distractions of life that might get in the way of your own awareness of God’s presence and care in your life? We all need intentional time, effort, space, and support to listen for and hear God’s whispered words of kindness and deep love for us. When we truly know and believe that we each are important to God and that God’s presence and life are deeply embedded within us, then we begin to look at ourselves and each other differently. We don’t have to live afraid of failing or of not being enough. And we don’t have to live being afraid of others God puts in our midst, for the purpose of teaching us about real love. We don’t have to be afraid of being who we are, who God has created each of us to be – wholly lovable and loved, AND entirely capable of sharing that love with others in need of that same assurance.

So, I invite you to an intentional observance of a holy Lent, not as a time of self-deprecation, (so often what we once were taught Lent is about) rather as an intentional six weeks of pausing to quiet ourselves, to hear and listen differently to the truth Jesus came to share, the love Jesus offers to each of us, and the power we have been given to live into that love and heal our broken world.

Make a Lenten Gift?

Here at Saint James' we are deep into the process of Transition. We Pray, Hope and Dream for our parish, our next rector, and our work of sharing God's love. While St. James' is facing changes, we hear news about migrant caravans headed to the US border, with many fleeing turmoil in Honduras. Yet in the midst of all these changes, excitement, uncertainty, fears and hopes, life carries on as usual for Maria de Jesus Roque and El Hogar.

Maria is now 10 years old. She celebrated her birthday on January 1, 2019 – how fun that she shares a birthday in common with our beloved Pat Larsen.

Mission Trip

This year, El Hogar celebrates 40 years of providing care and education to Honduran children. It is more important than ever that they succeed in raising up stable, healthy, well-educated, well-trained Honduran citizens who are ready to serve God in their communities. This is one of the reasons we continue our ministry with them and with Maria. We are beginning to consider a Service Trip to Honduras. Jason Lang is the communications director of El Hogar Ministries, Inc. He is committed to helping us find a speaker to talk about Service Teams that travel to El Hogar. If our parish is not able to host an entire team, El Hogar, Inc. will work with us to match up the few parishioners who would want to go with another team. We hope to have a speaker in place for September, 2019.

How YOU can help Maria? Today, our combined blessings total $4000. We only need $1400 more to meet our commitment to our God-child, Maria for 2019! Breaking it down, we need 35 people from our parish to give $40 to meet our goal. That is equivalent to:

A nice pair of shoes, on sale at DSW

An Amazon dot, with a smart plug

Four bottles of your favorite table wine

Some can give more and will. Some can give less and will.

Working together, as God intends, we are one parish sponsoring one child.

If God is calling you to share in this ministry, make your check payable to St. James' with El Hogar in the memo and send it to the church office (25 West Street, Danbury, CT 06810). The Lenten Pretzel!

Pretzels had their beginning around 610 A.D. somewhere in Southern France or Northern Italy. A young monk was preparing unleavened bread for Lent, the Christian period of fasting and penitence before Easter. This was a simple bread made of flour and water because no eggs, lard or dairy products were consumed during the Lenten fast. Christians of the day prayed with their arms folded across their chests, each hand on the opposite shoulder. It occurred to him that he could twist the leftover dough from the bread into this shape and use it as a treat for the children to recite their prayers. He named his creation 'pretiola,' Latin for 'little reward.'

The shape of the pretzel represents hands crossed in prayer over one's heart, a practice especially encouraged during Lent.

Pretzel Recipe

1 Tb honey or sugar	1 package yeast
1 1/2 Cups lukewarm water	1 tsp salt
4 Cups flour	1 egg, beaten
Course or kosher salt

Add honey to the water; sprinkle in the yeast and stir until dissolved.

Add salt, blend in the flour and knead the bread until smooth.

Cut dough into pieces. Roll them into ropes and twist into pretzel shapes (keep a consistent size so they cook at the same rate).

Place on lightly greased cookie sheets. Brush with beaten egg. Sprinkle with course salt. Bake at 425 for 12-15 minutes until pretzels are golden brown.

Season of Racial Healing, Justice, & Reconciliation

At our 2018 Annual Convention of the Episcopal Church in Connecticut (ECCT) clergy and lay delegates passed the resolution, “ Affirming Racial Justice, Healing and Reconciliation .” This resolution was informed by the concerted efforts of the Racial Healing, Justice, and Reconciliation Ministry Network and the work undertaken by our ECCT Leadership Gathering (Mission Council, Standing Committee, Commission on Ministry, and Donations & Bequests) in response to the 2017 Annual Convention resolution, “ Affirming Racial Reconciliation. ”

During Lent, we, at St. James’, will join our brothers and sisters by engaging in conversations about the ways in which our Baptismal Covenant leads us to acknowledge our brokenness and become freed to heal the divisions that divide us, one from another.

(An excerpt to ponder from conversations already happening) I cannot understand the experiences of people of color. I don’t know what it’s like to walk out of my house every day in fear. I have never had to have “the talk” with my sons: “Don’t put the hood up on your sweatshirt; if you’re stopped just get out of the car, put your hands on the roof and spread your legs, because you just might get shot for that faulty tail light.” The irony is that Jesus, the woman at the well, Muhammad and Abraham were people of color. St. Paul most assuredly had brown skin. So what do I do? First, I must listen. Second, I must search my soul, discover where the racism is in me. Third, when I become aware, I must act. The Rev. William Barber says: “We must learn how our issues intersect in a comprehensive moral agenda that demands transformation of everyone – not least, of us.” Of me.

SIGN UP FOR READING OF PASSION GOSPELS

On the Sunday of the Passion (Palm Sunday) we read the Passion Gospel “in parts”. Many of the parts are very short and perfect for those who are not our traditional Lectors and yet have always wanted to try on that role. And it makes a great difference in hearing the Story anew when we have different voices. Please speak with Rev. Lisa if you are willing to take part.

BOOK OF LOVING REMEMBRANCE
AT EASTER

We are now accepting names for Easter flowers for our Book of Loving Remembrance. Forms and envelopes are included with the printed copy of the Lenten newsletter and are also available at the rear of the Church. Names are due in the office NO LATER THAN March 31th.
